Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills for ten years and will always tell of their benefit to others.

Persons who are easily excited and subject to nervous spells or headache after attending church, the theatre or some social gathering, will find Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills a true friend in time of need. Carry one or two tablets in your purse or pocket and take them as needed.

At all druggists—if the first box fails to benefit, your money is returned.

NEW STATE CONSTITUTION.

Present One Nearly Fifty Years Old and is Antiquated.

Our state has held three Constitutional Conventions, 1796, 1834, 1870. Between the first and the second 38 years; between the second and third 36 years. Since the third Convention adjourned 46 years have passed and still we have not held another.

Thomas Jefferson said that Constitutions need revision about once in each generation, and the great State of New York has held two Constitutional Conventions during the past twenty five years, while nearly every state in the Union has had a revision since ours. And moreover, our Convention of 1870 was called mainly to deal with issues growing out of the Civil War, hence, as a matter of fact, we are living under a Constitution that was made from 82 to 120 years ago. It fit perfectly a small agricultural population, but no man then living could foresee the conditions of today.

A year ago Gov. Rye appointed a strong Committee on Taxation. Its labors covered quite a period of time, during which, the Committee consulted and received information from more than one hundred and sixty organizations, officials and citizens of the State, representing almost every county and certainly representing every class and every interest in the State. That Committee says:

"Anything like a complete and thoroughly effective reform of our tax system cannot now be obtained; and the chief obstacle is the inflexible article on taxation in the Constitution of 1870."

Quoting from an eminent authority on taxation the Committee further says of our system: "It puts a premium on dishonesty and debauches the public conscience; it reduces deception to a system and makes a science of knavery; it presses hardest on those least able to pay; it imposes double taxation on one man and grants entire immunity to the next."

The report also says that capital files from any State where there is no fixedness of taxes; that the property of widows and orphans is more highly assessed in proportion to value than any other classes of property; that we have double taxation on property, which a Constitutional amendment alone can cure; that we have absolutely no uniformity in the assessment of property from county to county.

A new Constitution is a great advertisement to a State, hence aside from its incalculable benefit, the adoption of a progressive up-to-date Constitution, which would be a benefit to every leading newspaper and periodical of the country, would be worth millions of dollars to our State.

Every man in the State who is interested in the subject is hereby extended a special invitation to attend the Constitutional Convention Conference at Nashville, January 25.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH.

Rev. M. A. Martin, Minister.
Sunday school, 9:45 a. m.
Preaching on the 1st and 3rd Sundays in the morning and on the 2nd and 4th Sundays in the evening of each month. Everybody welcome.

ERRATTA COUNTY COURT.

Through an oversight, we failed to mention in giving a review of the county court proceedings last week, that C. E. Snodgrass and W. E. Wheeler were elected to serve for three years and J. L. Qualls and H. C. Sabine for two years on the High School board. Also that J. S. Garrison was elected coroner to succeed Roe Hyder.

DEADLY FLY.

There is but one known fly that is deadly in its bite. That is a fly that is found in the African jungle and it is called: tsetse. It produces a sleeping sickness that causes death. A man in Brooklyn, N. Y., died recently from the bite of this fly. He had been bitten five years before while traveling in the jungle of Africa.

DON'T WORRY, but work.

Gasoline for sale at the Chronicle office.

The ladies of the Baptist church will serve dinner during court week, commencing Monday with a chicken dinner. 1-19-31.

The Art Circle Library is now in Mrs. DeGolia's building. Open on Tuesdays and Saturdays from 2:30 until 4:30 p. m.

Eight freight cars and the engine left the track on the T. C. in Renfro hollow last Wednesday morning and the track was blocked for several hours. Passenger trains had to transfer Wednesday, but the track was cleared in time for the night trains. No one was hurt.

At the Chronicle office you can get pen tablets, examination tablets, fountain pen ink in five and ten cent bottles, pocket note books, stenographer's note books, Crane's fine stationery in two-quire boxes and other stationery such as you do not find elsewhere in this county.

This year the Chronicle force did not take the usual week off during holidays. For that reason we are letting Miss Eula Bishop, who operates the typesetter, off at noon Monday so she can attend the Eastern Star Grand Chapter meeting at Nashville. The paper will be some short on that account this week and several batches of local news will have to be held until next week.

If you want score cards and pencils, paper napkins, nice writing paper cut to special size come to the Chronicle office for them.

Rev. J. D. Harris, financial agent of the Methodist school at Baxter, was here and preached two excellent sermons in the M. E. church Sunday.

If you have not paid your subscription to the Chronicle why not do it NOW and at the same time take advantage of the big combination offer we are making. You can supply yourself and family with good reading for a whole year and save 95 cents over any other way of getting the same good reading.

Harry Martin was up from Howard Springs Saturday. Mr. Martin is one of the most successful cattlemen in the county. He is giving special attention to the question of better breeds in both cattle and sheep. At this time he feels that sheep are one of the most profitable things that can be handled on the farm and since they are such quick money as well as always commanding a good price he feels that our farmers should give that line of live stock special attention.

If you have a watch or a piece of jewelry that needs fixing, bring it to Bishop at the Chronicle office and he will send it to J. H. Wilson, who will fix it right at a right price and return it. Then you can pay when it is returned.

J. T. Horn has purchased the hickory timber on what is known as the Patterson tract, near Pomona. Burnett & Hinch have been taking off the cross tie timber and have about completed that work. Mr. Horn will cut the hickory for axe handles. The mill located here in town will be taken there and used to work up that tract. Mr. Horn thinks he has approximately 100 ricks of the hickory on the entire tract.

Plenty of small single entry ledgers at the Chronicle office; 180 pages only 30 cents.

Mrs. M. F. Reed arrived home Sunday after a visit of some weeks with home folks in Arkansas. She reports much sickness in the section where she visited.

The Masonic grand bodies are in annual session in Nashville this week. Also the Eastern Star Grand Chapter. Those in attendance from here are: Chas. Constock and wife, Sampson DeRossett, A. L. Garrison, Mrs. Eva C. Bishop and daughter, Miss Eula Bishop and M. F. Reed.

City Meat Market

Strictly Cash

Watch this space, something doing all the time.

If you do not find in this ad what you want in the way of eatables, we have them at our market. We have everything fresh and nice to eat. Quality and price to satisfy.

Taylor Brothers.

The place to get everything good to eat.

Can that grouch and wear a smile.

A. E. Horn will move the Mecca Theatre this week to the Webb building, opposite the postoffice.

If you want pencils, fountain pens, pen points, ink wells, library paste, or paper fasteners come to the Chronicle office for them.

S. W. Potter was home for the weekend from Peavine, where he has a large logging contract with the Cumberland Lumber Company. Mr. Potter has five teams on the job now.

The Cumberland Lumber Company, Peavine, is cutting oak timber for the British government. It is to be used in shipbuilding.

The second quarterly conference for Crossville circuit, of the Methodist Episcopal church, south, will be held at Crab Orchard, February 5 and 6, 1916. A full attendance of the official board of each church on the work is desired. Everybody welcome. Robt. Hall, Pastor.

Volner Hamby will move his restaurant this week to the building now occupied by the Mecca Theatre. It is rumored that Mr. Hamby has bought the restaurant operated by Reed & Burnett the past year or longer and Mr. Hamby will unite it with his restaurant business.

Prof. Frank March and Robert Potter have purchased the Reed & Burnett meat market and will move it into the building where the City Restaurant now is. F. A. Loshbaugh has been conducting the meat market for Reed & Burnett and will so continue.

Homer Hickey and wife came up from Rockwood Saturday for a visit of a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hardin Smith.

Master Morris Bishop was confined to the house a few days the past week with la grippe.

I. A. Hill, of Harriman, died at his home there Friday night. He was for several years postmaster at Harriman and one of the leading republican politicians of Roane county. He was highly esteemed as a citizen.

Many persons in all parts of the county have been sick with la grippe the past few weeks, but so far as we have learned there have been no fatalities.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Palmer arrived last week from Evansville. Mr. Palmer returned to his work Monday, but Mrs. Palmer will pass some weeks here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Jones.

W. R. McCoy, who had his right leg broken near the ankle some weeks ago by his mule falling with him, returned to his home near Genesis last week. He had been staying at the home of Mike Hale to be more convenient to the doctor. The broken bone was doing well and his early recovery is expected.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Foester and Mrs. Chas. Goddard, of Monterey, were the weekend visitors of Mrs. Sheerman Smith.

In this issue we are publishing a large advertisement of a clubbing proposition which should interest many Chronicle readers. It means a saving of 95 cents as against any other way you can get these publications. The most interesting feature of the deal is that each clubbing offer enables you to get the Chronicle at a price less than the regular subscription rate. Look the ad over carefully and select such combinations as you wish.

Comer Moore was here from Cookeville Saturday looking after business for the Gainesboro Telephone Company.

Perhaps not many people of our town have thought of the real value of kindergarten work for the little tots. It is of very great value, especially when one so competent as Miss Fannie DeGolia is in charge. We should remember that true education is not confined to books. The education that is of the most value is the one that teaches us to do things that are helpful and useful. For that reason the simple things the little folks learn to do at kindergarten are especially useful to them as it starts them on the road to doing things with their hands while their little minds are developing. No schooling a child ever gets is more helpful or of greater benefit than that received in kindergarten training. Those who are neglecting to send their children to kindergarten are depriving their children of a most excellent and highly needed training. It is laying a foundation that counts all through life. Send the little one to the kindergarten and do not deprive it longer of that excellent training.

T. C. Sherman died at his home in Jamestown, Sunday, January 9. For a number of years Mr. Sherman had been editor of the Fentress County Gazette and only shut it down a few months ago when his health became such that he was unable to give it prompt attention. He was a Federal soldier and highly respected by all who knew him. His daughter, Mrs. Blanche Wing, had gone to Louisiana a few days before to take a position on a newspaper. She was notified by wire of the sickness of her father and left at once for home, but he died before she reached home. The deceased was in his 70th year. The Chronicle extends sympathy to the bereaved family.

DOWN ON HIS BACK.

"About two years ago I got down on my back," writes Solomon Bequette, Flat River, Mo. "I got a 50c box of Foley Kidney Pills and they straightened me right up. I recommend them to all who have kidney trouble." Rheumatic aches and pains, soreness and stiffness, sleep disturbing bladder trouble, yield quickly to Foley Kidney Pills. For sale by Reed & Burnett.

WHEAT IN SOUTH.

Increased Acreage in Dixie While Other Sections Show Decrease.

Referring to the report of the United States Department of Agriculture on the acreage sown to winter wheat this fall, Mr. Fairfax Harrison, President of Southern Railway Company, said:

"This report is interesting chiefly because it shows a continuing tendency to diversified agriculture in the South. As compared with last year the states of Virginia, North Carolina, Georgia, Kentucky, Tennessee, Alabama and Mississippi all show increased areas sown to wheat. In South Carolina the area is the same as last year. These States as a whole show an aggregate increase over last year of 141,000 acres, or 2.92 per cent, while the States outside of the South show a net decrease of 4,907,000 acres, or 13.19 per cent. While the acreage sown is a slender basis on which to base an estimate of the final yield, so far as it goes it is favorable to the South as indicating a larger yield in our section at a time when a smaller yield in the United States as a whole will tend to advance the price."

LIVING UP TO PROHIBITION.

Long lists might be given of breweries, distilleries and other liquor places, wholesale and retail, which have been transformed into centers of bigger and better business by prohibition. Empty buildings and jobless bartenders are conspicuous exceptions to the rule in the newly dry states.

Drink factories and dramshops are being converted into industrial concerns which employ a greater number of men than did the alcoholic beverage traffic in its palmiest days. For example, the Keymann brewery, Wheeling, West Virginia, employed 87 men; the packing plant which takes its place employs 135. Other breweries have become manufacturing plants for soap, ice, milk products, soft drinks, etc. One at least is being utilized as a "movie" studio, and one was bought and is being remodeled for a church.

Distillers have been turned into canneries and into plants for the production of necessities and luxuries for which under prohibition there will be increasing demand.

In buildings once occupied by saloons there may be seen today in these dry states, jewelry stores, groceries, men's and women's furnishing shops, confectioneries, restaurants, moving picture places—all doing a thriving business. Saloonkeepers are going into more reputable lines of trade, thus bringing more satisfaction and self-respect to themselves and more happiness to their families.

KOESTER-BANDY.

A marriage which will come as a surprise to their many friends was that of Miss Margaret Zella Bandy and Mr. Louis Frank Koester, which took place Sunday afternoon at the home of the bride in Monterey, the Rev. J. W. Wood officiating.

The bride is the attractive daughter of Edward Bandy, deceased. She wore a costume of white crepe de chene trimmed in seed pearls, and carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. Mr. Koester is a popular employee of the Tennessee Central Railroad. They will make their home for the present with the bride's mother at Monterey. Mr. Koesters and his bride came to Nashville Monday morning for a brief visit to relatives and friends here.—Banner.
